

FOUNDATIONS IN FAMILY LITERACY TRAINING

The New York State Alliance for Family Literacy, the New York State Education Department, and Hudson River Center for Program Development, Inc. are pleased to announce the availability of a family literacy training workshop. Based on the National Center for Family Literacy model, this workshop is tailored to meet the specific training needs of New York State home visitors, teachers of adults and young children, parent educators, social workers, school administrators, and others involved or interested in a comprehensive family literacy program. Following are the dates and locations of upcoming trainings:

October 5-7, 2004	Western New York	November 16-18, 2004	New York City
November 3-5, 2004	Eastern New York

**Participants must complete the entire training in order to receive a certificate of completion.**

Important Registration Information

- Registrations are processed when payment is rendered. Registration forms that do not include a purchase order, check, or money order will be returned, unprocessed, to sender.
- Hudson River Center must receive your registration and payment no later than three weeks (15 working days) before the training of choice. Since space is limited, we may be unable to process late registrations.
- The workshop fee of $325 per person covers extensive training materials, beverage breaks, and lunches.
- To register, complete the following information. Please send it, along with your check or purchase order made payable to Hudson River Center for Program Development, Inc., to:
